Centre for Neuro Skills Joins Prime Health Services Network

Bakersfield, CA (March 14, 2018) – Centre for Neuro Skills (CNS) announced a new provider relationship with Prime Health Services Inc. (PHS) for all its clinical locations in California and Texas. PHS members will now have improved access to CNS’ world-class medical treatment, disease management, and rehabilitation for traumatic brain injury.

Effective April 1, 2018 the contract covers inpatient and outpatient treatment in CNS’ Texas clinics, located in Dallas, Fort Worth and Houston; and its California clinics in Bakersfield, Los Angeles, and San Francisco.

“This agreement provides CNS’ renowned brain injury rehabilitation programs to PHS members in need of goal-oriented, individualized care,” said Ken Diashyn, CNS Vice President of Business Development.

“Prime Health Services is excited about this renewed partnership as it will offer even better care for not only our conventional clients, but the ones who utilize our California MPN and Texas HCN networks,” adds Todd Hurt, PHS Vice President of Provider Relations and Contracting.

PHS offers a host of medical cost containment services, helping to control medical expenditures and assisting members in connecting with providers to achieve the best outcomes at the best price.
