Centre for Neuro Skills Joins the Aetna® Provider Network in Texas

Bakersfield, CA (November 3, 2014) - Centre for Neuro Skills (CNS) has reached an agreement with Aetna to join its provider network in Texas, a partnership that will expand postacute brain injury care to 3 million members in the state. All levels of CNS postacute services will be available, including residential and day treatment programs, provided at the CNS Dallas clinic.

Aetna plans included are: Health Maintenance Organizations, Quality Point-of-Service®, Managed Choice® Point-of-Service, Preferred Provider Organizations, and the National Advantage™ Program. The contract is effective November 1, 2014.

“CNS can now help more people in Texas who need this specialized rehabilitation, thanks to the comprehensive coverage for which Aetna is known,” said Dr. Mark Ashley, president and CEO of CNS.

Aetna is one of the nation’s leaders in health care and disability insurance, and has more than 3 million members in Texas. Nationwide, Aetna has 1 million health care professionals in its networks, including 5,400 hospitals, which serve a broad array of patients.

CNS has provided specialized treatment for people with brain injuries since 1980. Clinical facilities in Bakersfield, Dallas, Los Angeles and San Francisco offer patient-centered programs, including behavior modification, life and work skills training, physical and occupational therapies, educational counseling, and cognitive rehabilitation.
